ABOUT BIBIGO

Bibigo takes 5000 years of delicious Korean cuisine and updates it for today's modern, non-stop lifestyles. That's why the name combines the Korean word "bibim," from a long cultural tradition of "mixed" flavors, with the English word "go." Inspired by authentic recipes, we make the exciting tastes of Korean cuisine easily accessible on grocery store shelves and in our restaurants in South Korea, in America, and around the world.

Founded in 2010, Bibigo is a global brand created by CJ, Korea's No. 1 Food Company. With over sixty years of experience, CJ has proudly been delivering flavor to dinner tables since 1953.

Bibigo is the only Korean food brand for restaurants and consumer packaged goods that makes it deliciously simple for American consumers to share the excitement of creating, enjoying and falling in love with the uniquely modern flavors of Korea by tapping into the immersive sensory quality of the Korean dining experience while inviting consumers to adventurously mix and match tastes.

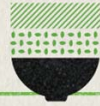

bibigo ABOUT BIBIGO RESTAURANTS

Bibigo Fresh Korean Kitchen offers a fast casual dining experience that focuses on offering a new twist on the classic Korean dish bibimbap. Traditionally, creating bibimbap involves combining a mixture (“bibim”) of ingredients with a base of rice (“bap”).

At Bibigo Fresh Korean Kitchen, we invite each customer to build their own bibimbap order to taste. On top of a base of rice, noodles or salad, customers select from a variety of grill options, vegetable selections, toppings and tasty sauces to create a dish bursting with Korean flavor. At many locations, customers can try it in our signature Hot Stone Bowl.

BUILD YOUR OWN BOWLS

At Bibigo, our goal is to share the excitement. We combine a fresh, healthy build-your-own meal experience without sacrificing flavor, delivered with the uniquely bold tastes of Korean cuisine. Whether you’re enjoying your bowl hot off the grill or taking it with you for a delicious meal to go, Bibigo makes every meal a fresh adventure.

At Bibigo Fresh Korean Kitchen, healthy eating sizzles! As of May 2017, Bibigo operates nine locations in the Greater Los Angeles and San Diego areas.
