

SHARE KOREAN FLAVOR

ABOUT BIBIGO

Bibigo takes 5000 years of delicious Korean cuisine and updates it for today's modern, non-stop lifestyles. That's why the name combines the Korean word "bibim," from a long cultural tradition of "mixed" flavors, with the English word "go." Inspired by authentic recipes, we make the exciting tastes of Korean cuisine easily accessible on grocery store shelves and in our restaurants in South Korea, in America, and around the world.

Founded in 2010, Bibigo is a global brand created by CJ, Korea's No. 1 Food Company. With over sixty years of experience, CJ has proudly been delivering flavor to dinner tables since 1953.

Bibigo is the only Korean food brand for restaurants and consumer packaged goods that makes it deliciously simple for American consumers to share the excitement of creating, enjoying and falling in love with the uniquely modern flavors of Korea by tapping into the immersive sensory quality of the Korean dining experience while inviting consumers to adventurously mix and match tastes.
